Profile

The reality of the digital era is such that it poses the necessity to be dynamic in learning and staying relevant. i am a vibrant individual, problem solving and goal driven with the quest of understanding technologies in this digital era hence i am equipped with the hands-on knowledge of HTML, CSS, Js, frameworks as Reactjs and understanding of state management and restful api concept, and necessarily version control. I look forward to interning and working with firms that enables and promotes such mindset towards problem solving in tech space. Do have a look at my portfolio website to see personal, collaborated works and more.
